Victoria sponge contains double cream spread over a first layer of cake then on top of the cream some jam then put with another layer of cake on the top, then sprinkled with icing sugar.

Apple crumble contains apples and a biscuity sort layer called crumble and usually served hot

Custard a sort of yellow topping that's very delicious on hot desserts like apple crumble.

Trifle is a sort of giant dessert with no cake but lots of layers of cream, raspberries and other summer fruit (personally I think it's sickly.)
